ABOUT MAKE-UP STARS

Make-up Stars branches are in Cape Town (Sea Point), Durban (Hillcrest) and Gauteng (Northcliff and Centurion)

WHAT WE HAVE TO SAY

We run a boutique make-up school catering for those who have specific make-up needs. Our courses mainly focus on fashion and bridal make-up. We keep our classes small and our teaching techniques are detailed and concise. All recap lessons are free of charge. For some classes models are required to practice the techniques (friends and family) we do have a database of students who sit as models for a nominal fee. We make suggestions regarding students make-up kits based on their specific needs.

We are not a crewing agency or styling agency and therefore don't find work for students after the course. We do however provide detailed notes for students pertaining to the fashion industry (photo shoots) and bridal make-up industry, focusing on how to find work as a make-up artist. Part and Full Time Make-up Course students also receive lectures on this subject.

If Part Time and Full Time students would like to work in the retail cosmetics industry we offer assistance and provide a letter of recommendation. If students would like to arrange a portfolio shoot after their course we can assist with this (on request).

Our school tends to cater for dynamic, self-sufficient people who want to train intensively in a reasonable length of time.

MAKE-UP KITS

Make-up Stars do not include student kits in the course fees. Students can use all of our make-up during the courses. With this arrangement students get to work with a wide variety of products and can decide which items will work best for their unique kit. Each student has different kit requirements and it's therefore more suitable and practical to offer each student a kit that actually works for the type of make-up they decide to specialise in. We introduce students to professional make-up brands, students will need to show each make-up brand their certificate in order to qualify for the student discount. (10% discount) We do sell specialised make-up products, the items that we don't sell can be bought from specialised stockist or in store. If our students would like our help with designing their make-up kit we are happy to assist and suggest suitable items that will suit the type of make-up they will be doing after their course. In a nut shell we can offer you kit options but in the end you choose what you would like in your kit.

Period make-up – 1920s to 1990s and fashion make-up (current looks) are covered in great detail. We will ensure you develop your skill to achieve a more polished application of make-up. 40% of current make-up looks in magazines are influenced by period make-up and it's therefore important to develop these techniques and be able to adapt them to a modern version without creating a theatrical make-up application.
